Conditions

- Classic League Umpires will now be paid at the rate of $25.00 per game
- Reserve Grade Umpires will be paid at the rate of $17.50 per game.
- This payment applies to only those umpires in the Classic League/Reserve grade pool.
- Payment will be made at end of season via direct deposit into a nominated bank account.
- There will be no other methods of payment.
- All umpires from within that pool must provide their bank account details before payment can be made.
- All umpires will be required to sign the card and print name beside before payment will be processed.
- If an umpire substitutes for a rostered umpire, then only the substitute umpire will be paid.
- It still remains the responsibility of the rostered umpire to organize a substitute if that rostered umpire is unable to perform the duties.

In keeping with this move into an era of professionalism, dress standards for all umpires must be adhered to. The dress standard is the CHA provided shirt, black slacks or Shorts or Skirt with covered footwear. Warning and breach cards are to be carried. Failure to comply with the dress code will result in a fine of $5.00 per game incorrectly attired. A penalty for failure to umpire (and not arrange a substitute) will result in the fine of -$25.00 per Classic Game not umpired when named and -$17.50 per Reserve Grade Game not umpired when named.

Umpires shall attend Monthly Meetings. Along with this Umpires will also attend any other training/classes that are scheduled during the season (e.g. Australian Games – International Umpires Class).

Umpires shall be responsible and act as per stated within the Rules of Hockey. Umpires shall not umpire if they are under the influence.

I hereby have read and understand the conditions above and will abide by them.
